19 the start of the year, throughout the remainder of the 20 year, but taking into account all revenues from such prod-
21 uct that are attributable to earlier periods in the same 22 year) will be sufficient to ensure that such product will 24 such product for such year.

1 “(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this sec-2 tion, the maximum rate allowable for a product in

23 “(A) CHANGE IN THE CONSUMER PRICE
24 INDEX.—The change in the Consumer Price
25 Index for a year shall be equal to the percent-

2 value, or zero, as the case may be) by which the 3 Consumer Price Index for the preceding year 4 differs from the Consumer Price Index for the 5 second preceding year.

6 “(B) CONSUMER PRICE INDEX FOR A
7 YEAR.—The Consumer Price Index for a year is 8 the average of the Consumer Price Index for 9 the 12-month period ending on June 30th of 10 such year.

11 “(C) ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.—The adjust-12 ment factor for any year shall be determined in

14 “(4) SPECIAL RULE.—For purposes of deter-
15 mining the maximum rate allowable for any particu-

17 making cycle, paragraph (1)(A) shall be applied by 18 substituting ‘the baseline rate for such product’ for 19 ‘the maximum rate allowable for such product under 20 this subsection in the year preceding the year for 21 which the maximum rate allowable is being deter-
22 mined (disregarding any rounding rules)’.

23 “(5) ROUNDING RULE.—The maximum rate al-

3 $\frac{1}{2}$ of a cent to the next higher cent).

4 “(d) RANGE ALLOWABLE.—For purposes of this sec-5 tion, the range allowable for a product in any year is the 6 range delimited by—

7 “(1) a maximum rate equal to the rate deter-
8 mined by increasing or decreasing (as applicable)—

9 “(A) the rate last in effect for such prod-
10 uct before the start of such year, by

11 “(B) the percentage equal to the percent-
12 age adjustment applicable with respect to such 13 product for such year, plus 2 percent; and 14 “(2) a minimum rate equal to the rate deter-

15 mined by increasing or decreasing (as applicable)—

16 “(A) the rate last in effect for such prod-
17 uct before the start of such year, by

18 “(B) the percentage equal to the percent-
19 age adjustment applicable with respect to such 20 product for such year, minus 2 percent.

21 For purposes of applying paragraphs (1)(B) and (2)(B)
22 in any year, the Board of Directors may, in a manner con-
23 sistent with the policies of this title and the requirements 24 of this subchapter, establish a single percentage which 25 shall be lower than, and which shall be substituted for,

1 the percentage adjustment applicable that would otherwise
2 be applied under both of those paragraphs in such year.
3 Such single percentage shall be the same for every product 4 in the noncompetitive category.

5 “§ 3733. Adjustment factor

6 “(a) DEFINITION OF RATEMAKING CYCLE.—

7 “(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this title, 8 the term ‘ratemaking cycle’ means—

9 “(A) the 5-year period beginning on the 10 first day of the second year beginning after the 11 date as of which the baseline rates are deter-12 mined under section 3721(e)(2); and 13 “(B) each 5-year period beginning on the 14 day after the last day of the immediately pre-15 ceding 5-year period under this subsection.

16 “(2) EARLIER COMMENCEMENT DATE.—The 17 Postal Regulatory Commission may advance the 18 commencement date of the first ratemaking cycle to 19 the date which occurs 1 year earlier than the date
20 that would otherwise apply under subparagraph
21 (1)(A), but only if that earlier date does not precede 22 the date as of which all requirements of this section 23 have been completed with respect to such cycle.

24 “(b) PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINING ADJUSTMENT
25 FACTOR.—

1 “(1) COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS.—

2 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 3 subparagraph (B), the Postal Regulatory Com-4 mission shall, beginning in September of the 5 second year before the start of each ratemaking 6 cycle, provide the opportunity for a hearing on 7 the record under sections 556 and 557 of title 8 5 to the Postal Service, users of the mails, and 9 an officer of the Commission who shall be re-
10 quired to represent the interests of the general 11 public, with respect to the adjustment factor to 12 be established for the upcoming ratemaking
13 cycle.

14 “(B) EXCEPTION.—For purposes of the 15 first hearing under this subsection, proceedings
16 shall be commenced during the second month 17 beginning on or after the date as of which the 18 baseline rates are determined under section
19 3721(e)(2).

20 “(2) RULES OF PROCEEDINGS.—In order to 21 conduct its proceedings with utmost expedition con-22 sistent with procedural fairness to the parties, the 23 Commission may (without limitation) adopt rules 24 which provide for—

1 “(A) the advance submission of written di-
2 rect testimony;

3 “(B) the conduct of prehearing conferences 4 to define issues, and for other purposes to in-5 sure orderly and expeditious proceedings;

6 “(C) discovery both from the Postal Serv-
7 ice and the parties to the proceedings;

8 “(D) limitation of testimony; and 9 “(E) the conduct of the entire proceedings 10 off the record with the consent of the parties.

11 “(3) PRINTING AND NOTICE REQUIREMENTS.— 12 The Commission’s decision and the record of the 13 Commission’s hearings shall be made generally avail-14 able at the time the decision is issued and shall be 15 printed and made available for sale by the Public 16 Printer within 10 days following the day the decision 17 is issued.

18 “(4) TIMING.—

19 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 20 subparagraph (B), all actions required of the 21 Commission under this section, including those 22 required under paragraph (3), shall be com-23 pleted by the end of the year preceding the 24 commencement of the ratemaking cycle to 25 which the decision relates.

1 “(B) EXCEPTION.—In any case in which 2 the Commission determines that the Postal 3 Service has unreasonably delayed any proceed-
4 ings under this section by failing to respond 5 within a reasonable time to any lawful order of 6 the Commission, the Commission may extend 7 the deadline described in subparagraph (A) by 8 one day for each day of such delay.

9 “(C) EFFECT OF DELAY ON RATEMAKING
10 AUTHORITY.—No rate change for any non-11 competitive product may take effect during any 12 period of delay. For purposes of the preceding 13 sentence, the term ‘period of delay’ means, in 14 the circumstance described in subparagraph
15 (B), the period beginning on the day following 16 the original deadline (as described in subpara-17 graph (A)) and ending on the date of the new 18 deadline (as determined under subparagraph 19 (B)).

20 “(c) REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO THE ESTABLISH-21 MENT OF ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.—

22 “(1) IN GENERAL.—An adjustment factor shall 23 be established in accordance with—

24 “(A) the policies of this title; and

1 “(B) the best evidence of likely Postal 2 Service productivity, and of specific sources of 3 cost savings to the Postal Service, during the 4 ratemaking cycle to which an adjustment factor 5 is to apply.

6 “(2) REQUIREMENT THAT ADJUSTMENT FAC-
7 TOR BE A NEGATIVE VALUE OR ZERO.—

8 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 9 subparagraph (B), an adjustment factor may be 10 no greater than zero.

11 “(B) EXCEPTIONS.—A positive adjustment
12 factor may be established only upon a written 13 determination by the Postal Regulatory Com-
14 mission that an exception to subparagraph (A) 15 is necessary—

16 “(i) because of any new and signifi-
17 cant statutorily imposed funding obliga-
18 tions not fully funded through appropria-19 tions; or

20 “(ii) because postal revenues during 21 the upcoming ratemaking cycle would oth-
22 erwise be insufficient to enable the Postal 23 Service, under best practices of honest, ef-24 ficient, and economical management, to 25 maintain and continue the development of

1 postal services of the kind and quality
2 adapted to the needs of the United States.

3 A determination under clause (ii) shall take into 4 account costs anticipated by the Postal Service
5 for the period of time involved, such as wages, 6 benefits, and transportation costs, consistent 7 with the provisions of subsection (g).

8 “(d) SAME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR TO BE UNI-9 FORMLY APPLIED TO ALL PRODUCTS.—For purposes of 10 each year in a ratemaking cycle, the same adjustment fac-11 tor shall apply—

12 “(1) to all baskets under section 3731; and 13 “(2) to all products within each such basket.

14 “(e) HOW AN ADJUSTMENT FACTOR IS TO BE EX-15 PRESSED AND APPLIED.—

16 “(1) HOW AN ADJUSTMENT FACTOR IS TO BE 17 EXPRESSED.—An adjustment factor established 18 under this section shall be expressed as a percent-19 age.

20 “(2) HOW AN ADJUSTMENT FACTOR IS TO BE 21 APPLIED.—To adjust a change in the Consumer
22 Price Index by an adjustment factor, the magnitude 23 of the adjustment factor shall—

1 “(A) if the adjustment factor is a positive
2 value, be added to the change in the Consumer 3 Price Index; or

4 “(B) if the adjustment factor is a negative 5 value, be subtracted from the change in the 6 Consumer Price Index.

7 “(f) EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES.—

8 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection 9 (d), upon a majority vote of the members of the 10 Board of Directors then holding office, the Postal 11 Service may request the Postal Regulatory Commis-12 sion to render a decision on changing the adjust-13 ment factor to be applied during the then current 14 ratemaking cycle (after having previously been es-15 tablished under this section for such cycle).

16 “(2) CONDITIONS.—A request made under 17 paragraph (1) may be granted only upon a written 18 determination by the Commission that the change
19 requested is justified by one or more of the same 20 reasons as would justify the establishment of a posi-21 tive adjustment factor (as set forth in subsection 22 (c)(2)(B)).

23 “(3) EFFECT; DURATION.—A change granted
24 under this subsection—

1 “(A) shall supersede the adjustment factor
2 that would otherwise apply under this section
3 (with appropriate changes to the respective lim-
4 itations under paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 5 3732(a)); and

6 “(B) shall remain in effect for the rest of 7 the ratemaking cycle involved, subject to para-
8 graph (5).

9 “(4) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION.—A request 10 made under paragraph (1) shall be acted on under 11 this section in the same manner as if initiated under 12 subsection (b)(1), except that a decision on any such 13 request shall be rendered not later than 6 months 14 after the date on which the request is made.

15 “(5) FREQUENCY.—Nothing in this section 16 shall be considered to limit the number of times this 17 subsection may be invoked during a ratemaking
18 cycle.

19 “(g) POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION NOT TO 20 INTERFERE WITH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.—It is the 21 sense of the Congress that nothing in this section should 22 restrict, expand, or otherwise affect any of the rights, 23 privileges, or benefits of either employees of the United 24 States Postal Service, or labor organizations representing 25 employees of the United States Postal Service, under

1 chapter 12 of this title, the National Labor Relations Act,
2 any handbook or manual affecting employee labor rela-
3 tions within the United States Postal Service, or any col-4 lective bargaining agreement.

5 “§ 3734. Action of the Board

6 “(a) AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH RATES.—The
7 Board of Directors, with the written concurrence of a ma-
8 jority of all of the members of the Board then holding 9 office, shall establish rates for products in the noncompeti-
10 tive category of mail in accordance with the requirements 11 of this subchapter and the policies of this title.

12 “(b) PROCEDURES.—

13 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Rates shall be established 14 in writing, complete with a statement of explanation 15 and justification.

16 “(2) PUBLICATION.—The Board shall cause 17 each such decision (complete with the accompanying 18 statement) and the record of the Board’s proceed-19 ings to be published in the Federal Register at least 20 45 days before the rate or rates to which they per-21 tain are to take effect.

22 “(c) LIMITATIONS ON AUTHORITY.—

23 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-
24 graph (2)—

1 “(A) FREQUENCY.—Ratemaking authority
2 under this section may not be exercised more 3 than once for purposes of any year.

4 “(B) UNIFORM EFFECTIVE DATE.—All
5 changes in rates pursuant to this section in a 6 year shall take effect on the same date.

7 “(2) EXCEPTION FOR CHANGE DUE TO EXI-
8 GENT CIRCUMSTANCES.—

9 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If the maximum rate
10 allowable for a product in a year changes pur-
11 suant to a request granted under section 12 3733(f), then, in the event that ratemaking au-
13 thority under this section was previously exer-
14 cised with respect to such product for such 15 year, such rate may be modified, not more than 16 once more in such year, based on the change in 17 the maximum rate allowable (and the cor-18 responding change in the range allowable).

19 “(B) UNIFORM EFFECTIVE DATE.—All
20 changes in rates pursuant to this paragraph 21 shall, to the extent based on the same set of 22 changes (as referred to in subparagraph (A)), 23 take effect beginning on the same date.

1 “SUBCHAPTER IV—RATES FOR PRODUCTS IN 2 THE COMPETITIVE CATEGORY OF MAIL

3 “§ 3741. Applicability; definition

4 “(a) APPLICABILITY.—This subchapter applies with 5 respect to—

6 “(1) priority mail;

7 “(2) expedited mail;

8 “(3) mailgrams;

9 “(4) international mail; and 10 “(5) parcel post;

11 except that this subchapter does not apply with respect 12 to any product then currently in the noncompetitive cat-13 egory of mail.

14 “(b) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this subchapter, 15 the term ‘costs attributable’, as used with respect to a 16 product, means the direct and indirect postal costs attrib-17 utable to such product.

18 “(c) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—

19 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-
20 graph (2), mail matter referred to in paragraphs (1) 21 through (5) of subsection (a) shall, for purposes of 22 such paragraphs, be considered to have the respec-
23 tive meanings given them under the mail classifica-24 tion schedule (as defined by section 3623) as of the 25 effective date of this chapter.

1 “(2) UPDATES.—The Postal Regulatory Com-
2 mission shall, whenever any relevant change occurs
3 (whether pursuant to a product transfer under sec-4 tion 3764 or an action taken under section 3763), 5 prescribe new lists of the products to which this sub-6 chapter applies. The revised lists shall indicate how 7 and when any previous lists (including under sub-8 section (a)) are superseded, and shall be published 9 in the Federal Register.

10 “§ 3742. Action of the Board

11 “(a) AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH RATES.—The
12 Board of Directors, with the written concurrence of a ma-
13 jority of all of the members of the Board then holding 14 office, shall establish rates for products in the competitive 15 category of mail in accordance with the requirements of 16 this subchapter and the policies of this title.

17 “(b) PROCEDURES.—Section 3734(b) shall apply 18 with respect to rates and decisions under this section, ex-19 cept that for purposes of this section, section 3734(b) shall 20 be applied by substituting ‘by such date before the effec-
21 tive date of any new rates as the Board considers appro-22 priate’ for ‘at least 45 days before the rate or rates to 23 which they pertain are to take effect’.

24 “(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

1 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-
2 graph (2), the ratemaking provisions of this sub-3 chapter shall be effective beginning with the rates to 4 be established for the first year beginning on or 5 after the date as of which the baseline rates are de-6 termined under section 3721(e)(2).

7 “(2) EXCEPTION.—The ratemaking provisions
8 of this subchapter shall, with respect to all inter-9 national mail as to which this subchapter applies, be 10 effective beginning on the date as of which the base-11 line rates are determined under section 3721(e)(2), 12 subject (until the entirety of this subchapter be-13 comes effective in accordance with paragraph (1)) 14 only to the requirement under section 3743(a).

15 “§ 3743. Provisions applicable to competitive prod-
16 ucts individually

17 “(a) IN GENERAL.—Rates for products in the com-18 petitive category of mail shall be established in a manner 19 such that each such product shall bear the costs attrib-20 utable to such product in such year.

21 “(b) TREATMENT OF SHORTFALLS.—If revenues de-22 rived from a competitive product in any year are not suffi-23 cient to meet the costs attributable to such product for 24 such year, the shortfall shall be made up in accordance 25 with section 3744(c)(1).

1 “(c) MANDATORY DISCONTINUANCE OF LOSS-MAK-
2 ING PRODUCTS.—

3 “(1) IN GENERAL.—If a competitive product 4 persistently fails to cover the costs attributable to 5 such product, the Postal Regulatory Commission
6 may, in accordance with procedures which the Com-7 mission shall prescribe and after considering all rel-
8 evant circumstances, order the Postal Service to dis-9 continue such product permanently.

10 “(2) PROCEDURES.—The procedures prescribed 11 to carry out this subsection—

12 “(A) shall provide the opportunity for a 13 hearing on the record under sections 556 and 14 557 of title 5 to the Postal Service, users of the 15 mail, and an officer of the Commission who 16 shall be required to represent the interests of 17 the general public;

18 “(B) may include rules of proceedings that 19 provide for any procedure or other matter listed 20 under section 3733(b)(2); and 21 “(C) shall require that any final decision 22 be accompanied by a statement setting forth 23 the reasons therefor.

1 “§ 3744. Provisions applicable to competitive prod-
2 ucts collectively

3 “(a) COST-COVERAGE REQUIREMENT.—

4 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Rates for competitive prod-5 ucts shall be established in a manner such that the 6 cost-coverage ratio for all competitive products (col-7 lectively) shall, for each year to which this sub-8 chapter applies (as referred to in section 3742(c)), 9 be at least equal to the cost-coverage ratio for such 10 year for all competitive and noncompetitive products
11 (collectively).

12 “(2) COST-COVERAGE RATIO.—For purposes of 13 this section, the term ‘cost-coverage ratio’ means, 14 for the products and year involved, the ratio that—

15 “(A) total revenues from those products in 16 such year, bears to 17 “(B) total costs attributable to those prod-18 ucts in such year.

19 “(b) ADJUSTMENT FOR SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES.—

20 The Postal Regulatory Commission may, by rule, and in 21 order to ensure that ratios under this section appro-
22 priately compensate for any significant and objective dif-
23 ferences in the nature and composition of costs attrib-24 utable to competitive and noncompetitive products, respec-
25 tively, provide for the exclusion of such costs attributable

1 as the Commission considers to be uniquely or dispropor-
2 tionately associated with either category of products.

3 “(c) SPECIAL RULES TO MAKE UP FOR CERTAIN 4 SHORTFALLS.—

5 “(1) SUBTRACTION TO MAKE UP FOR ANY 6 SHORTFALL DESCRIBED IN SECTION 3743(b).—In 7 any year in which a shortfall described in section 8 3743(b) occurs in the case of any competitive prod-
9 uct, an amount equal to the amount of such shortfall
10 shall, for purposes of determining whether the re-11 quirement under subsection (a) has been satisfied in 12 such year, be subtracted from total revenues derived 13 from all competitive products (collectively) in such 14 year. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be con-15 sidered to permit or require that the same amount 16 be concurrently subtracted from total revenues de-17 rived from competitive and noncompetitive products
18 (collectively).

19 “(2) SUBTRACTION TO MAKE UP FOR ANY 20 SHORTFALL IN CONTRIBUTIONS TOWARD INSTITU-21 TIONAL COSTS IN A PREVIOUS YEAR.—If, in any 22 year, the requirement under subsection (a) is not 23 met (determined applying the provisions of sub-24 section (b), paragraph (1), and this paragraph based 25 on any failure to satisfy subsection (a) in the pre-

1 vious year), the difference between the total revenues
2 considered to have been derived from competitive
3 products in the year involved (determined applying 4 such provisions), and the minimum amount of total 5 revenues from competitive products which would 6 have been required in order to satisfy subsection (a) 7 (determined applying such provisions), shall, for pur-8 poses of determining whether the requirement under 9 subsection (a) is met in the following year, be sub-10 tracted from total revenues derived from competitive
11 products (collectively) in such following year. Noth-12 ing in the preceding sentence shall be considered to 13 permit or require that the same amount be concur-14 rently subtracted from total revenues derived from 15 competitive and noncompetitive products (collec-16 tively).

17 “(d) PHASEIN AUTHORITY.—If necessary in order to 18 afford the Postal Service an opportunity to increase effi-19 ciency to competitive market levels, the Postal Regulatory 20 Commission may, by written determination made as part 21 of its first adjustment factor case under section 3733, pro-22 vide for the phasein of subsection (a) over the course of 23 the first ratemaking cycle. If the Commission grants relief 24 under this subsection, it shall review the continuing need 25 for and the extent of such relief annually.

1 “SUBCHAPTER V—MARKET TESTS OF 2 EXPERIMENTAL PRODUCTS

3 “§ 3751. Market tests of experimental noncompetitive
4 products

5 “(a) AUTHORITY.—

6 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Postal Service may 7 conduct market tests of experimental noncompetitive
8 products in accordance with this section.

9 “(2) PROVISIONS WAIVED.—A product shall 10 not, while it is being tested under this section, be 11 subject to the requirements of section 3623 (relating 12 to mail classification), section 3732 (relating to limi-13 tations on rates), or section 3762 (relating to new 14 noncompetitive products).

15 “(b) CONDITIONS.—A product may not be tested
16 under this section unless it satisfies each of the following:

17 “(1) SIGNIFICANTLY DIFFERENT PRODUCT.—
18 The product is, from the viewpoint of mail users,
19 significantly different from all products offered by 20 the Postal Service within the 2-year period preceding
21 the start of the test.

22 “(2) DOLLAR-AMOUNT LIMITATION.—The total
23 revenues that are anticipated, or in fact received, by 24 the Postal Service from such product do not exceed 25 $10,000,000 in any year, subject to section 3754.

1 “(3) MARKET DISRUPTION.—The introduction
2 or continued offering of the product will not cause
3 unreasonable market disruption (either for competi-
4 tive or noncompetitive products).

5 “(4) CORRECT CATEGORIZATION.—The testing
6 of the product under this section is consistent with 7 the criteria under section 3761(b)(2).

8 “(c) NOTICE.—At least 30 days before initiating a 9 market test under this section, the Postal Service shall 10 file with the Postal Regulatory Commission and publish 11 in the Federal Register a notice setting out the basis for 12 the Postal Service’s determination that the market test is 13 covered by this section and describing the nature and 14 scope of the market test.

15 “(d) DURATION.—

16 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A market test of a product
17 under this section may be conducted over a period
18 of not to exceed 24 months.

19 “(2) EXTENSION AUTHORITY.—If necessary in 20 order to determine the feasibility or desirability of a
21 product being tested under this section, the Postal
22 Regulatory Commission may, upon written applica-
23 tion of the Postal Service (filed not later than 60 24 days before the date as of which the testing of such 25 product would otherwise be scheduled to terminate

1 under paragraph (1)), extend the testing of such
2 product for not to exceed an additional 12 months.

3 “(e) CANCELLATION.—If the Postal Regulatory Com-
4 mission at any time determines that a market test under 5 this section fails, with respect to any particular product,
6 to meet one or more of the conditions set forth in sub-
7 section (b), it may issue any order that would be allowable
8 under section 3662(c)(6). A determination under this sub-
9 section shall be made in accordance with such procedures
10 as the Commission shall by regulation prescribe.

11 “§3752. Market tests of experimental competitive
12 products

13 “(a) AUTHORITY.—

14 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Postal Service may 15 conduct market tests of experimental competitive
16 products in accordance with this section.

17 “(2) PROVISIONS WAIVED.—Any noncompliance 18 with section 3743(a) (relating to costs-attributable 19 requirement) on the part of a product shall not, if 20 it occurs while such product is being tested under 21 this section, be taken into account for purposes of 22 any sanction or other action that might otherwise be 23 permitted or required under any of the following:

1 “(A) Section 3662(c)(3) (relating to order-
2 ing the adjustment of rates to lawful levels pur-
3 suant to a rate complaint).

4 “(B) Section 3743(c) (relating to manda-
5 tory discontinuance of loss-making products).

6 “(C) Section 3773(e) (relating to use of 7 profits).

8 “(3) PROVISIONS NOT WAIVED.—Nothing in 9 this section shall be considered to permit or require 10 the exclusion of any costs or revenues that are at-11 tributable to a product that is being tested under 12 this section from any determination under section 13 3744 (relating to provisions applicable to competitive 14 products collectively).

15 “(b) CONDITIONS.—A product may not be tested
16 under this section unless it satisfies each of the following:

17 “(1) SIGNIFICANTLY DIFFERENT PRODUCT.—
18 The product is, from the viewpoint of mail users,
19 significantly different from all products offered by 20 the Postal Service within the 2-year period preceding
21 the start of the test.

22 “(2) DOLLAR-AMOUNT LIMITATION.—The total
23 revenues that are anticipated, or in fact received, by 24 the Postal Service from such product do not exceed 25 $10,000,000 in any year, subject to section 3754.

1 “(3) MARKET DISRUPTION.—The introduction
2 or continued offering of the product will not cause
3 unreasonable market disruption (either for competi-
4 tive or noncompetitive products).

5 “(4) CORRECT CATEGORIZATION.—The testing
6 of the product under this section is consistent with 7 the criteria under section 3761(b)(2).

8 “(c) NOTICE.—

9 “(1) IN GENERAL.—At least 30 days before ini-10 tiating a market test under this section, the Postal 11 Service shall file with the Postal Regulatory Com-
12 mission and publish in the Federal Register a notice
13 setting out the basis for the Postal Service’s deter-
14 mination that the market test is covered by this sec-15 tion and describing the nature and scope of the mar-16 ket test.

17 “(2) SAFEGUARDS.—The provisions of section
18 3604(g) shall be available with respect to any infor-
19 mation required to be filed under paragraph (1) to 20 the same extent and in the same manner as in the 21 case of any matter described in section 3604(g)(1).
22 Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be considered to per-23 mit or require the publication of any information as 24 to which confidential treatment is accorded under

1 the preceding sentence (subject to the same excep-
2 tion as set forth in section 3604(g)(3)).

3 “(d) DURATION.—

4 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A market test of a product
5 under this section may be conducted over a period
6 of not to exceed 24 months.

7 “(2) EXTENSION AUTHORITY.—If necessary in
8 order to determine the feasibility or desirability of a
9 product being tested under this section, the Postal
10 Regulatory Commission may, upon written applica-
11 tion of the Postal Service (filed not later than 60
12 days before the date as of which the testing of such 13 product would otherwise be scheduled to terminate
14 under paragraph (1)), extend the testing of such 15 product for not to exceed an additional 12 months.

16 “(e) CANCELLATION.—If the Postal Regulatory Com-
17 mission at any time determines that a market test under 18 this section fails, with respect to any particular product,
19 to meet one or more of the conditions set forth in sub-
20 section (b), it may issue any order that would be allowable
21 under section 3662(c)(6). A determination under this sub-
22 section shall be made in accordance with such procedures
23 as the Commission shall by regulation prescribe.

1 “§ 3753. Large-scale market tests

2 “(a) AUTHORITY.—The Postal Service may, in ac-
3 cordance with this section, conduct—

4 “(1) market tests involving any experimental 5 noncompetitive product that would be allowable 6 under section 3751 but for subsection (b)(2) thereof;
7 and

8 “(2) market tests involving any experimental 9 competitive product that would be allowable under 10 section 3752 but for subsection (b)(2) thereof.

11 “(b) CONDITION.—Notwithstanding any other provi-12 sion of this section, a product may not be tested under 13 this section unless the total revenues that are anticipated, 14 or in fact received, by the Postal Service from such prod-15 uct do not exceed $100,000,000 in any year, subject to 16 section 3754.

17 “(c) PROVISIONS WAIVED.—Section 3751(a)(2) shall 18 apply with respect to an experimental noncompetitive
19 product being tested under this section, and section 20 3752(a)(2) shall apply with respect to an experimental 21 competitive product being tested under this section, as if 22 such test were instead being conducted section 3751 or 23 3752, as the case may be.

24 “(d) REGULATIONS.—The Postal Regulatory Com-25 mission shall by regulation establish rules for the conduct 26 of market tests under this section, including rules for the

1 termination of any such test. In adopting rules under this 2 subsection, the Commission shall consider such matters 3 as—

4 “(1) the Postal Service’s interest in the develop-5 ment and testing of new products with a minimum 6 of regulatory impediments; and 7 “(2) the public interest in preventing unfair or 8 disruptive competition.

9 “(e) DURATION.—

10 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A market test of a product
11 under this section may be conducted over a period
12 of not to exceed 24 months.

13 “(2) EXTENSION AUTHORITY.—If necessary in
14 order to determine the feasibility or desirability of a
15 product being tested under this section, the Postal
16 Regulatory Commission may, upon written applica-
17 tion of the Postal Service (filed not later than 60
18 days before the date as of which the testing of such 19 product would otherwise be scheduled to terminate
20 under paragraph (1)), extend the testing of such 21 product for not to exceed an additional 12 months.

22 “§ 3754. Adjustment for inflation

23 “In the case of a year following the first year in which 24 any testing under this subchapter is permitted, the dollar 25 amount contained in sections 3751(b)(2), 3752(b)(2), and

1 3753(b), respectively, shall be adjusted at the same time
2 and by the same percentage adjustment as the maximum 3 rates allowable for noncompetitive products are adjusted
4 pursuant to 3732(c) (but deeming the adjustment factor
5 under paragraph (2)(B) thereof to be zero for purposes 6 of this section).

7 “§ 3755. Conversion to permanence

8 “A request to have an experimental product under 9 this chapter converted to a permanent one—

10 “(1) shall be made and acted on in conformance 11 with applicable provisions of subchapter VI; and 12 “(2) shall be made by the Postal Service.

13 “§ 3756. Effective date

14 “Market tests under this subchapter may be con-15 ducted in any year beginning with the first year beginning 16 on or after the date as of which the baseline rates are 17 determined under section 3721(e)(2).

18 “SUBCHAPTER VI—PROVISIONS RELATING TO 19 THE INTRODUCTION AND CATEGORIZATION
20 OF PRODUCTS

21 “§ 3761. Criteria for the identification of noncompeti-
22 tive and competitive products

23 “(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in sub-24 chapter V, no product may be offered until such product 25 has been assigned to the noncompetitive or competitive

1 category of mail, whichever is appropriate (and, if a non-2 competitive product, its proper basket).

3 “(b) CRITERIA.—

4 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Determinations as to the 5 category of mail to which any particular product 6 should be assigned (whether in connection with a 7 new product under section 3762 or 3763, the pro-8 posed transfer of a product under section 3764, or 9 the proposed reclassification of an existing product 10 under subchapter II of chapter 36) shall be made in 11 conformance with paragraph (2).

12 “(2) CHARACTERISTICS BY CATEGORY.—The 13 noncompetitive category of products shall embrace
14 all products in the sale of which the Postal Service
15 exercises sufficient market power that it can effec-
16 tively set the price of such product substantially 17 above costs or raise prices significantly without risk 18 of losing business to other firms offering similar 19 products, or that it can effectively set the price 20 below competitive costs to forestall entry by new 21 competitors or to eliminate existing competitors. The 22 competitive category of products shall embrace all 23 other products.

24 “(c) INITIAL AND UPDATED LISTS.—The respective 25 products which, as of any particular date, are within the

1 noncompetitive or competitive category of mail (and any 2 particular basket, if applicable) shall be as identified 3 under sections 3731 and 3741.

4 “§ 3762. New noncompetitive products

5 “(a) REQUEST.—The Postal Service—

6 “(1) may from time to time request that the 7 Postal Regulatory Commission submit a rec-8 ommended decision on the classification for a new 9 noncompetitive product; and

10 “(2) shall, as part of any request made under 11 paragraph (1) (other than in the case of a trans-12 ferred product), also request a recommended deci-13 sion on the baseline rate for such product for pur-14 poses of section 3765.

15 “(b) HEARINGS.—In response to any request made 16 by the Postal Service under this section, the Postal Regu-17 latory Commission shall promptly initiate a proceeding in 18 accordance with the procedures set out in section 3624.

19 “(c) FACTORS AND RECOMMENDED DECISION.—The 20 Postal Regulatory Commission shall make a recommended 21 decision on (1) the baseline rate for the new product based 22 on the factors set out in section 3622(b), and (2) the clas-23 sification for the new product based on the factors and 24 requirements under section 3623(b). Such recommended 25 decision shall be submitted to the Directors for action in

1 accordance with section 3625, and subject to review in ac-
2 cordance with section 3628(a).

3 “§ 3763. New competitive products

4 “(a) AUTHORITY.—The Postal Service may, in ac-
5 cordance with this section, offer a new competitive product
6 and, with respect to competitive products only, otherwise 7 make changes in the mail classification schedule.

8 “(b) CONDITIONS.—An action under this section may 9 not be taken unless it satisfies each of the following:

10 “(1) CRITERIA.—To the extent that the classi-11 fication of a product is involved, the action would be 12 consistent with the criteria under section
13 3761(b)(2).

14 “(2) COSTS ATTRIBUTABLE.—To the extent
15 that the establishment of a rate for a competitive 16 product is involved, the requirement under section 17 3743(a) would be met.

18 “(c) NOTICE.—

19 “(1) IN GENERAL.—At least 30 days before it 20 offers a new competitive product or otherwise makes 21 any change in the mail classification schedule under 22 this section, the Postal Service shall file with the 23 Postal Regulatory Commission and publish in the 24 Federal Register a notice setting out the basis for

1 the Postal Service's determination that the product
2 satisfies each of the conditions under subsection (b).

3 “(2) SAFEGUARDS.—The provisions of section
4 3604(g) shall be available with respect to any infor-
5 mation required to be filed under paragraph (1) to 6 the same extent and in the same manner as in the 7 case of any matter described in section 3604(g)(1).
8 Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be considered to per-
9 mit or require the publication of any information as 10 to which confidential treatment is accorded under 11 the preceding sentence (subject to the same excep-
12 tion as set forth in section 3604(g)(3)).

13 “(d) CANCELLATION.—If the Postal Regulatory 14 Commission determines that an action proposed to be 15 taken under this section fails to meet either of the condi-
16 tions set forth in subsection (b), the Commission shall, be-17 fore the proposed action is scheduled to be taken or to 18 commence (as applicable), order that the proposed action 19 be canceled. A determination under this subsection shall 20 be made in accordance with such procedures as the Com-21 mission shall by regulation prescribe.

22 “§ 3764. Transfers of products between categories of 23 mail

24 “(a) IN GENERAL.—Upon request of the Postal Serv-25 ice or users of the mails, or upon its own initiative, the

1 Postal Regulatory Commission may, after proceedings
2 conducted in conformity with subsection (d), transfer 1
3 or more products—

4 “(1) from the noncompetitive category of mail 5 to the competitive category of mail; or

6 “(2) from the competitive category of mail to 7 the noncompetitive category of mail.

8 “(b) CRITERIA.—

9 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A decision under this sec-10 tion shall be made in accordance with the policies of 11 this title and the criteria set forth in section 12 3761(b)(2).

13 “(2) EXCLUSION OF PRODUCTS COVERED BY 14 POSTAL MONOPOLY.—A product covered by the post-15 al monopoly shall not be subject to transfer under 16 this section from the noncompetitive category of 17 mail. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the 18 term ‘product covered by the postal monopoly’
19 means any product the conveyance or transmission 20 of which, under section 1696 of title 18, is reserved
21 to the United States, subject to the same exception 22 as set forth in the last sentence of section 409(d)(1).

23 “(3) ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS.—In mak-24 ing any decision under this section, due regard shall 25 be given to—

1 “(A) the availability and nature of enter-
2 prises in the private sector engaged in the deliv-3 ery of the product involved; and 4 “(B) the views of those who use the prod-

5 uct involved on the appropriateness of the pro-6 posed action.

7 “(c) TRANSFERS OF SUBCLASSES AND OTHER SUB-8 ORDINATE OR FURTHER SUBORDINATE UNITS ALLOW-9 ABLE.—Nothing in this title shall be considered to prevent 10 transfers under this section from being made by reason 11 of the fact that they would involve only some (but not all) 12 of the subclasses or other subordinate or further subordi-13 nate units of the class of mail or type of postal service 14 involved.

15 “(d) REQUIREMENTS.—Proceedings required to be 16 conducted in accordance with this subsection—

17 “(1) shall provide the opportunity for a hearing 18 on the record under sections 556 and 557 of title 5
19 to the Postal Service, users of the mail, and an offi-20 cer of the Postal Regulatory Commission who shall 21 be required to represent the interests of the general 22 public;

23 “(2) may include rules of proceedings that pro-24 vide for any procedure or other matter listed under 25 section 3733(b)(2); and

1 “(3) shall require that any final decision be ac-
2 companyed by a statement setting forth the reasons 3 therefor.

4 Paragraph (3) of section 3733(b) (relating to printing and 5 notice requirements) shall apply with respect to each Com-
6 mission decision and related record of Commission hear-7 ings under this section.

8 “§ 3765. Transition provisions for new or transferred 9 noncompetitive products

10 “(a) IN GENERAL.—In the case of a product that be-11 comes assigned to the noncompetitive category of mail 12 under section 3762 or that is transferred from the com-
13 petitive to the noncompetitive category of mail under sec-
14 tion 3764—

15 “(1) the maximum rate initially allowable for 16 such product after that assignment or transfer shall 17 be determined in accordance with subsection (b); 18 and

19 “(2) the initial range allowable for such product 20 after that assignment or transfer shall be deter-21 mined in accordance with subsection (c).

22 “(b) MAXIMUM RATE INITIALLY ALLOWABLE.—The 23 maximum rate allowable during the first year in which a 24 product subject to this subsection is offered shall be deter-

1 mined in a manner similar to the special rule under section 2 3732(c)(4), subject to the following:

3 “(1) TRANSFERRED PRODUCTS.—In the case of 4 any product that becomes a noncompetitive product
5 pursuant to a transfer under section 3764, the rate
6 last in effect for such product (before the effective 7 date of its transfer) shall be treated as its ‘baseline 8 rate’.

9 “(2) OTHER PRODUCTS.—In the case of any 10 product assigned to the noncompetitive category of 11 mail pursuant to section 3762, the ‘baseline rate’ for 12 such product shall be determined under subchapter 13 II of chapter 36 pursuant to the request made under 14 section 3762(a)(2) with respect thereto.

15 (c) RANGE INITIALLY ALLOWABLE.—The range al-16 lowable during the first year in which a product subject 17 to this subsection is offered shall be determined in accord-18 ance with section 3732(d), deeming the rate determined 19 for such product under subsection (b) of this section to 20 be the rate specified by paragraphs (1)(A) and (2)(A) of 21 section 3732(d).

1 “SUBCHAPTER VII—REPORTING
2 REQUIREMENTS AND RELATED PROVISIONS

3 “§ 3771. Annual reports by the Commission

4 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Postal Regulatory Commis-5 sion shall render an annual report to the President and 6 the Congress concerning the operations of the Commission 7 under this title.

8 “(b) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.—In addition to the 9 information required under subsection (a), each report 10 under this section shall also include, with respect to the 11 period covered by such report, an estimate of the costs 12 incurred by the Postal Service in providing—

13 “(1) postal services to areas of the Nation 14 where, in the judgment of the Postal Regulatory 15 Commission, the Postal Service either would not 16 provide services at all or would not provide such 17 services in accordance with the requirements of this 18 title if the Postal Service were not required to pro-
19 vide prompt, reliable, and efficient services to pa-20 trons in all areas and all communities, including as 21 required under the first sentence of section 101(b);

22 “(2) free or reduced rates for postal services as 23 required by this title; and 24 “(3) other public services or activities which, in 25 the judgment of the Postal Regulatory Commission,

1 would not otherwise have been provided by the Post-
2 al Service but for the requirements of law.

3 The Commission shall detail the bases for its estimates
4 and the statutory requirements giving rise to the costs
5 identified in each report under this section.

6 “(c) INFORMATION FROM POSTAL SERVICE.—The 7 Postal Service shall provide the Postal Regulatory Com-
8 mission with such information as may, in the judgment
9 of the Commission, be necessary in order for the Commis-10 sion to prepare its reports under this section.

11 “§ 3772. Annual reports to the Commission

12 “(a) COSTS, REVENUES, AND RATES.—

13 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in sub-
14 section (c), the Postal Service shall, no later than 90 15 days after the end of each year, prepare and submit 16 to the Postal Regulatory Commission a report (to-17 gether with such nonpublic annex thereto as the 18 Commission may require under subsection (e)) ana-19 lyzing costs, revenues, and rates in sufficient detail
20 to demonstrate that the rates in effect for all prod-21 ucts during such year (including, for purposes of 22 section 3744, rates for all competitive products col-23 lectively) complied with all applicable requirements 24 of this title.

1 “(2) AUDITING REQUIREMENT.—Before submit-
2 ting a report (and any annex thereto) under para-
3 graph (1), the Postal Service shall have the informa-4 tion contained in such report (and annex) audited by 5 the Inspector General. The results of any such audit
6 shall be submitted along with the report to which it 7 pertains.

8 “(b) QUALITY OF SERVICES.—Except as provided in 9 subsection (c), the Postal Service shall, no later than 90 10 days after the end of each year, prepare and submit to 11 the Postal Regulatory Commission a report (together with 12 such nonpublic annex thereto as the Commission may re-13 quire under subsection (e)) which shall, for each non-14 competitive product provided in such year, provide—

15 “(1) market information, including mail vol-16 umes; and

17 “(2) measures of the speed and reliability of 18 postal service, including—

19 “(A) the service standard applicable to 20 such product;

21 “(B) the actual level of service (described 22 in terms of speed of delivery and reliability) 23 provided; and

24 “(C) the degree of customer satisfaction
25 with the service provided.

1 “(c) MARKET TESTS.—In carrying out subsections
2 (a) and (b) with respect to experimental products offered
3 through market tests under subchapter V in a year—

4 “(1) the Postal Service may, to the extent that 5 a test under section 3751 or 3752 is involved, report 6 summary data on the costs, revenues, and quality of 7 service by market test; and

8 “(2) the Postal Service shall, to the extent that 9 a test under section 3753 is involved, report such 10 data as the Postal Regulatory Commission requires.

11 “(d) SUPPORTING MATTER.—The Postal Regulatory 12 Commission shall have access, in accordance with such 13 regulations as the Commission shall prescribe, to the 14 working papers and any other supporting matter of the 15 Postal Service and the Inspector General in connection 16 with any information submitted under this section.

17 “(e) CONTENT AND FORM OF REPORTS.—

18 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Postal Regulatory 19 Commission shall, by regulation, prescribe the con-20 tent and form of the public reports (and any non-21 public annex and supporting matter relating thereto)
22 to be provided by the Postal Service under this sec-
23 tion. In carrying out this subsection, the Commis-24 sion shall give due consideration to—

1 “(A) providing the public with adequate in-

5 administrative effort and expense on the part of 6 the Postal Service; and

7 “(C) protecting the confidentiality of com-
8 mercially sensitive information.

9 “(2) REVISED REQUIREMENTS.—The Commis-10 sion may, on its own motion or on request of an in-11 terested party, initiate proceedings (to be conducted 12 in accordance with regulations that the Commission 13 shall prescribe) to improve the quality, accuracy, or 14 completeness of postal service data required by the 15 Commission under this subsection whenever it shall 16 appear that—

17 “(A) the attribution of costs or revenues to 18 postal products has become significantly inac-
19 curate or can be significantly improved;

20 “(B) the quality of service data has be-21 come significantly inaccurate or can be signifi-
22 cantly improved; or

23 “(C) such revisions are, in the judgment of 24 the Commission, otherwise necessitated by the 25 public interest.

1 “(f) CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.—

2 “(1) IN GENERAL.—If the Postal Service deter-
3 mines that any document or portion of a document, 4 or other matter, which it provides to the Postal Reg-
5 ulatory Commission in a nonpublic annex under this 6 section or pursuant to subsection (d) contains infor-7 mation which is described in section 410(c) of this 8 title, or exempt from public disclosure under section 9 552(b) of title 5, the Postal Service shall, at the 10 time of providing such matter to the Commission, 11 notify the Commission of its determination, in writ-
12 ing, and describe with particularity the documents 13 (or portions of documents) or other matter for which 14 confidentiality is sought and the reasons therefor.

15 “(2) TREATMENT.—Any information or other 16 matter described in paragraph (1) to which the 17 Commission gains access under this section shall be 18 subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 3604(g)
19 in the same way as if the Commission had received 20 notification with respect to such matter under sec-21 tion 3604(g)(1).

22 “(g) OTHER REPORTS.—The Postal Service shall 23 submit to the Postal Regulatory Commission, together 24 with any other submission that it is required to make

1 under this section in a year, copies of its then most re-2 cent—

3 “(1) comprehensive statement under section
4 2401(e);

5 “(2) performance plan under section 2803; and 6 “(3) program performance reports under sec-

7 tion 2804.

8 “§ 3773. Annual determination of compliance

9 “(a) PROFITS DEFINED.—For purposes of this sec-10 tion, the term ‘profits’, with respect to a year, means the 11 amount by which—

12 “(1) total revenues of the Postal Service attrib-13 utable to such year, exceeds

14 “(2) total costs of the Postal Service (including 15 institutional costs) attributable to such year, 16 as determined based on the report under section 3772(a) 17 for such year.

18 “(b) OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC COMMENT.—After 19 receiving the reports required under section 3772 for any 20 year, the Postal Regulatory Commission shall promptly 21 provide an opportunity for comment on such reports by 22 users of the mails, affected parties, and an officer of the 23 Commission who shall be required to represent the inter-24 ests of the general public.

1 “(c) DETERMINATION OF COMPLIANCE.—Not later
2 than 90 days after receiving the submissions required
3 under section 3772 with respect to a year, the Postal Reg-4 ulatory Commission shall make a written determination as 5 to whether—

6 “(1) any rates or fees in effect during such year 7 (for products individually or collectively) were not in 8 compliance with applicable provisions of this title;

9 “(2) any performance goals established under 10 section 2803 or 2804 for such year were not met; 11 and

12 “(3) any noncompetitive product failed to meet 13 any service standard during such year.

14 “(d) IF NO NONCOMPLIANCE IS FOUND.—If, for a 15 year, no instance of noncompliance is determined under 16 subsection (c) (or no determination under subsection (c) 17 is timely made), then, up to 100 percent of the profits
18 attributable to such year (if any) may be used by the Post-19 al Service for the purposes described in subsection (f).

20 “(e) IF ANY NONCOMPLIANCE IS FOUND.—If, for a 21 year, a timely determination of noncompliance is made 22 under subsection (c)—

23 “(1)(A) the Postal Regulatory Commission may 24 order, based on the nature, circumstances, extent, 25 and seriousness of the noncompliance, that a specific

1 percentage (not to exceed 50 percent) of the profits 2 attributable to such year (if any) be set aside for the 3 purposes described in subsection (g); and 4 “(B) the remainder (or any portion) of those 5 profits may be used by the Postal Service for the 6 purposes described in subsection (f); and 7 “(2) the Commission may, in the case of any 8 violation as to which a remedy could be ordered by 9 the Commission under section 3662(c), order any 10 such remedy under this section.

11 “(f) BONUSES.—

12 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Postal Service shall es-13 tablish a program under which cash bonuses may be 14 paid to officers and employees of the Postal Service 15 out of any profits which are available for that pur-16 pose.

17 “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—Under the program—

18 “(A) bonuses may be paid to officers and 19 employees of the Postal Service under criteria 20 which shall be fair and equitable;

21 “(B) the sole source of funding shall be 22 any profits from any year, subject to the appli-23 cation of subsection (e)(1) with respect to such 24 year; and

1 “(C) bonuses shall not be precluded (in 2 whole or in part) by the limitation on com-
3 pensation under the last sentence of section 4 1003(a) in a year, if—

5 “(i) total profits attributable to the 6 preceding year, exceed

7 “(ii) the amount equal to 1 percent of
8 total revenues of the Postal Service attrib-
9 utable to such preceding year.

10 “(3) DISCRETIONARY NATURE OF PROGRAM.—
11 Nothing in this section shall be considered to create 12 any entitlement to receive bonuses or to require that 13 any portion of the profits from any year be used for 14 bonuses in excess of whatever amount the Postal 15 Service, in its sole discretion, considers appropriate.

16 “(4) CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE POR-
17 TION OF PROFITS TO BE AVAILABLE FOR BO-18 NUSES.—In any decision relating to what portion of 19 the available profits from any year shall be made 20 available or used for bonuses under this subsection, 21 there shall be taken into consideration—

22 “(A) the obligation on the part of the 23 Postal Service to provide efficient and economi-24 cal postal services in accordance with this title;
25 and

1 “(B) the question of what portion of those 2 profits (if any) should be used—

3 “(i) to retire debts or other obliga-
4 tions of the Postal Service;

5 “(ii) to limit future increases in postal 6 rates or fees for products in the non-7 competitive category of mail; or 8 “(iii) to carry out any other purpose.

9 “(g) DEDICATION OF FUNDS TOWARD REDUCING 10 RATES AND FEES.—

11 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any amounts ordered to be 12 set aside under subsection (e)(1)(A) may not be 13 used for any purpose other than to defray increases 14 in future rates and fees for products in the non-15 competitive category of mail or to reduce the rates 16 and fees already in effect for such products.

17 “(2) COMPLIANCE.—Whenever an order under 18 paragraph (1)(A) or (2) of subsection (e) is issued, 19 the Postal Service shall include in its next com-20 prehensive statement under section 2401(e) (and 21 each subsequent statement thereunder until such 22 order has been fully complied with) a statement as 23 to—

24 “(A) what measures have been or will be 25 implemented in order to comply with the order,

1 including the schedule in accordance with which 2 any amounts set aside pursuant to an order
3 issued under subsection (e)(1)(A) shall be used 4 or made available for the purposes described in 5 paragraph (1); and

6 “(B) if (or to the extent that) an order
7 under subsection (e)(1)(A) is involved—
